Humdinger!

Estimated play time: Variable

Number of Players: Unlimited

Supplies Needed: A stopwatch or some kind of timer; printed pages 2-4 of this document. (Note: If a microphone is handy, it would be a great addition to this game ... but it's not required.)

Overview

This game is basically Name That Tune with a twist. Given the title of a popular song, players are allowed to hum or whistle the tune – but no words are allowed. Can the other players guess the correct song title within one minute?

Instructions

1. Print the list of songs below and cut the paper along the lines so that one song title is on each strip of paper.
2. Choose one player to be the hummer, and give him or her one of the strips of paper with a song title.
3. The hummer can either whistle or hum the song (no words are allowed) until:
a) someone else guesses the song; or b) one minute (more or less) runs out.
4. When the song title is correctly guessed, ten points are scored by both the hummer AND the guesser.
5. Choose the next player to be the hummer, and continue until everyone has had a chance to hum or whistle a tune.
