Nationalities

Estimated play time: Approximately 15 minutes
Number of players: Unlimited
Supplies needed: Scoring board/pad; noisemakers
Suitable for visually impaired players.

Overview:

People, of course, usually come with actual nationalities, such as Chinese, French, or Dutch. But there are many other things, phrases, concepts, etc. that have also become connected with specific nationalities, regions, or language groups. Chinese New Year, French Twist, and Dutch Uncle are just three examples. In this game, we provide the thing, and your players must come up with the nationality, region, or language group associated with it.

Instructions:

1. This game can be played by individuals or in teams.
2. Read the first question. Discussion is permitted among teammates. Prior to the start of the game, a method to signal when a team is ready to answer must be determined. Ringing bells and New Year's blowers are just two inexpensive noisemakers. Raised hands work, but the host must be vigilant to watch for whose hand went up first. The host always has the final say in any disputes.
3. After a player/team is recognized as the first to signal, they may give an answer. If the first answer is incorrect, the other teams may "buzz" in and answer.
4. Scoring: Give 10 points for each correct answer.
