Vivienne's Vowels – Titles

Estimated play time: Approximately 15 minutes

Number of players: Unlimited

Supplies needed: Scoring board/pad; noisemakers

Overview:

Vivienne has a strange problem — she hates vowels. She leaves out the letters A, E, I, O, and U whenever she writes anything. Lately she's been keeping a written list of some of her favorite movie titles. Can you help decipher Vivienne's list by putting back the correct vowels?

In this game, we've provided two options: CHALLENGE LEVEL DIFFICULT and CHALLENGE LEVEL AVERAGE. The difference is that the harder level does not have a space between words. You might want to try the more challenging level first; but if your players get stuck, you can easily switch to the average challenge. Let's give one a try:

If you put the vowels back in GNWTHTHWND, what answer do you get?

If that's too hard, try the average challenge level: GN WTH TH WND

Did that help you find the correct answer? GONE WITH THE WIND

(Note to game host: It would be best to write each clue on a large pad or white board so that the players can see the letters and work out the answers.)

Instructions:

1. This game can be played by individuals or in teams.
2. Show the first clue. Discussion is permitted among teammates. Prior to the start of the game, a method to signal when a team is ready to answer must be determined. Ringing bells and New Year's blowers are just two inexpensive noisemakers. Raised hands work, but the host must be vigilant to watch for whose hand went up first. The host always has the final say in any disputes.
3. After a team is recognized as the first to signal, they may give an answer. If the first answer is incorrect, the other teams may 'buzz' in and answer.
4. Keep score (10 points for each answer) after each question is answered correctly. Play until all questions have been asked and answered.
