

Homework 9/28/25

And That's The News ...

---

Estimated play time: Approximately 15 minutes

Number of players: Unlimited

Supplies needed: Scoring board/pad; noisemakers

Overview:

Homework games usually differ from our typical game formats in that they are meant for individual play and will often require pencil and paper to solve. However, with a little adaptation, you can usually use them for group play as well. For homework games, we recommend that you hand out the game page (but not the answers) for your players to take home. Perhaps you can post the answers on a bulletin board or in the elevator a couple of days later.

Instructions:

The last names of 18 journalists (past and present, TV and print) are hidden in the grid that follows, laid out horizontally, vertically, diagonally, and reading both forward and backward. For this puzzle, we haven't given you a list of the journalists to find ... but we have provided an image of each person as a hint.

Just circle the name of each journalist on the grid as you find it (LAST names only).

Note: In some cases, one letter can be used for more than one name. Good luck!
