One-Minute Madness

Estimated play time: Approximately 15 minutes
Number of players: Unlimited
Supplies needed: Scoring board/pad; noisemakers
Suitable for visually impaired players

OVERVIEW:
One question. One minute. Multiple answers. In One-Minute Madness, a question is asked that has multiple answers (usually anywhere from 5 to 100+). The goal is to see how many correct answers your players can come up with in one minute.

QUESTION:
How many of the Ten Commandments can you come up with in one minute?

Instructions:
This game can be played several ways:

- Teams of players write down as many answers as they can in one minute, each team getting one point per correct answer;
- Individual players write down as many answers as they can in one minute, scoring as above; or
- All players just shout out answers in a free-for-all style with no scoring.

ANSWERS

Note: While there are some differences in the wording of the Ten Commandments, depending on which Bible, version, and/or chapter you go by, the following list (from Exodus 20:2-17) pretty much covers it all.

1. I am the Lord your God. You shall have no other gods before Me.
2. You shall not make for yourself a carved image (idol).
3. You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain.
4. Remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy.
5. Honor your father and your mother.
6. You shall not murder.
7. You shall not commit adultery.
8. You shall not steal.
9. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
10. You shall not covet your neighbor's house … wife … nor anything that is your neighbor's.
