Finding Love, Past and Present

Valentine's Day is coming up next week, so let's talk about both traditional and more modern ways to meet that special someone.

It has never been easy to find the love of your life, but today's couples are often helped through internet dating services. Even seniors are meeting through websites such as Match.com, eHarmony.com, Seniormatch.com, and so on. What do you think of this new way of meeting people? Do you think it's easier than it used to be to meet your significant other? Would you consider using the internet to meet someone new? If it had been around when you were young, do you think you might have used the internet then? Why? Or why not? Do you know any couples who met over the internet?

With or without online assistance, how did you meet your spouse or significant other?
